What is the course?

This NRA approved Rifle Training Course is aimed to provide a comprehensive introduction to full bore rifle shooting.

This is a "fast track" way of getting your Firearms Certificate. As you may already be aware, you cannot simply put in for an FAC.

At the end of the course, upon completion and (hopefully) passing, you will receive a letter of recommendation from us, to put in with your application form, to state the training you have undergone.

The Training Course is held over 4 dates which generally span over a 3-month period. Each of the 4 days of the course include both theory (learning) & practical (shooting) elements.

This course is suitable for complete beginners, that have never shot a rifle, upwards, as it starts from the basics.

When is the course?

Course dates can be found on our website. Dates for each group are listed. You must be able to attend all dates to join that group.

Once you have decided to go ahead with the course, return the application form and let us know which group number you are interested in joining.

All group numbers will show the number of spaces available, on the website.

The Modules

All module dates include both theory (learning) and practical (shooting).

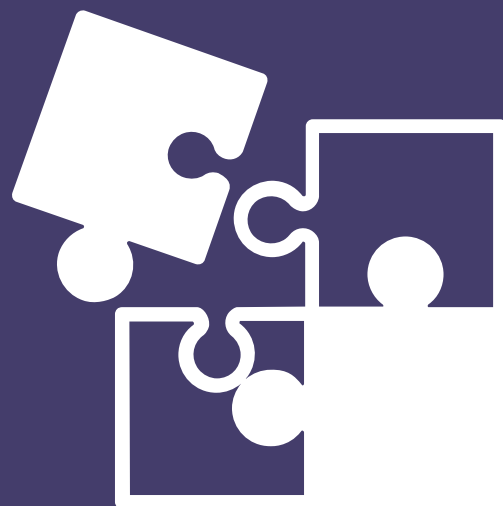

MODULE 1 Safety and Intro to Target Shooting, including Safe Handling and Range Safety Regulations; .22 Gallery Rifle shoot at 25 yds or 5.56/308 shoot at 100 yds.

MODULE 2 Marksmanship Principles; MOA, intro to sighting systems; basic firearm cleaning and maintenance; Full bore shoot at 100 yds.

MODULE 3 Full-bore shooting at 100 yds and zeroing to 300/600/1000 yds with Iron sight (TR and Historic) and scoped rifles (bolt action and straight pull); basic positional techniques.

MODULE 4 & 5 Target marking/butt duties; Range booking procedure. Gallery Rifle, revision and assessments for Shooter Certification Cards (SCCs). Competitive shooting events; specialist "Introduction To..." courses and Club/Association leads. Assessment for course completion.

Please also note that the instructor will assess you on each Module before clearing you to commence the next one. Should the instructor not pass you off on a particular Module, they may request you re-take the Module, but will explain why. It is very rare for this to happen, but should you be required to re-take a Module, there is an additional charge of £95 to retake a Module

Practice

Whilst on the training course, you are required to do a minimum of 1 practice session between modules.

You may use rifles up to the calibre you have received training on, to that date.

The cost of practice sessions has been outlined on the "course cost summary" page, under the "additional fees to be aware of" section.

You must book in via our website, for your practice sessions in between modules. Please use the online calendar to book.

Please go to:

www.cambridgegunclub.co.uk/rifle-range/rifle-range-booking

Please ensure you are booking the 100 yard range.

Please ensure that you are with us a minimum of 15 mins ahead of your booking, to allow time to book in at reception and to collect your gun & equipment from the gun shop.

Membership & Course Completion

On completion of the training course, you are required to take out Full membership of our Range, for us to issue your letter of recommendation.

Your letter of recommendation is valid for 12 months. You may continue to be a Probationary Member with us for a period of 6 months from your course completion date (Mod 4/5), if you do not wish to do your membership straight away.

If you do not take out full membership, you will not receive your letter of recommendation. Without being a full member of the club, thus not receiving your letter of recommendation, you cannot apply for your FAC.

The annual membership fee allows you to use the range as often as you wish, with no lane fees. Full membership is usually £300 per year and runs for a 12-month period from the date of joining. The Full membership is discounted for you to £250 for the first year, as you have undertaken the course.

A membership card shall be issued once you become a full member. You will need to provide us with a digital photo for your membership card, sent via email. This is usually requested upon applying for the course. The photo can be taken on a phone and sent via email, as long as it is a clear image of your face.

Payments & Deposits

Upon applying for the course, a deposit fee of £200 will be required, via transfer (account details will be provided at the time of enquiry)

This fee consists of 4 x £50 non-refundable deposits for each module date (due to course popularity and sadly, the recurrence of no shows).

As the course is modular, it is important that participants turn up to each module to complete the course. Unfortunately, failure to show up to a module would then terminate a person's space on the course.

Each £50 deposit will be deducted from the cost of each module date (£95), leaving the remainder of £45, to then be paid at reception when booking in, on the morning of the module date.

Alternatively, you may pay for the course upfront (total £380) if you prefer.

What to do next?

If you want to join the training course, please fill in the "Prospective Member" application form and return it to us. You can find this on the next page down of a PDF version of the form can also be found on our website.

Get the form back to us, one of these ways:

Fill in digitally & attach to an email

Printing off, filling in, taking a photo and send via email

Drop the form off on site

Post it to us

Please tell us which group number you want to join.

We will then require your deposit payment to book you on.

Please note that we must send all applications for the course, through to Cambridgeshire Firearms Department, where they will run their required checks. The Firearms Department will contact us if they reject an application. We shall notify you if this occurs, although the Firearms Department will not explain to us the reasons for rejection. Should you wish to query this, you would need to liaise directly with the Firearms Department. Although rejections are rare, your deposit payment will be returned to you, if you are unable to participate in the course.

Although we send you through firearms as soon as possible, we may not receive a reply from them immediately. In the rare case that a refusal is received after the course starts, we are only able to refund the remaining deposit balance at that time.

We hope the information provided is adequate, but should you have any additional questions at this stage, please don't hesitate to contact us
